One Killed and Several Purned in Mine Explosion.

NEWS ITEMS FROM THREE STATES

SOMERSET, PA., July 18.-A flutter of excitement was created on the streets of this place this afternoon when it became known that there had been a jail delivery. About 2:30 o'clock several young ladies, residing in in the east end of town, observed two men running down the street at full speed. As there was no apparent occasion for their running at such a pace on such a hot day the young ladies at once concluded that they had broken jail.

Policeman Gumbert happened to be in the neighborhood, and the young ladies told him of their suspicions. The officer retired to the county prison, where he found a rope made of two sheets hanging from one of the rear windows on the upper floor. The bars had been sawed from the window, and so cess through it to the ground was very easy.
An inspection of the jail showed that only three inmates had escaped. They are James Murphy, John Roberts and William Dougherty, all being held for trial on charge of having burglarized two stores in Myersdale

one night last March.

None of the jail officials were in town at the time of the escape, and no one started in pursuit of them until several hours afin pursuit of them until several hours afterward. They have not been overtaken at midnight. Murphy is an old-timer, having served a four years' term in the penitentiary from this county, and he is likely to lead the officers a long chase before he is recaptured. His companions are strangers in this community.

This is the fourth general jail delivery from Somerset county's new jail that has taken place since it was erected three years ago, and it is now apparent that prisoners
